Race 1 — Analysis & Wagering

Public mockup concept for external readers

Overview

A projected fast early setup makes this race tactically important. Bulma is the strongest overall measured horse and the morning-line favorite, while Cocoa Nimbus stands out as the principal measured alternative. Sweetbitters offers supporting speed and My Last Dime is the main closer for underneath use. The race should be evaluated with live prices before committing to concentrated plays.

Favorite

MORNING-LINE FAVORITE

#7 BULMA | ML 2-1

Clear top HWIN horse and effective A grade. FVS v2 remains D/U because exact current-year connection wins are unavailable, so no vulnerability band is assigned. Dangerous on class and finishing strength, but value still depends on the live board.

Exotic Horses

#8 COCOA NIMBUS
Main measured alternative; strong exacta and trifecta contender.

#5 SWEETBITTERS
Useful supporting pace horse who can stay involved.

#6 MY LAST DIME
Best closer by LB; interesting underneath horse if pressure develops.
